

How to be a Champion in Your Life, Business & Investments

“The Biggest Battle is Between Your Ears”

In 7,300 days you will be 20 years older than you are now.....

Most of us want to achieve a lot of things in that period of time - even if it happens to be just good health. So just stop what you are doing for a moment and think where you would like to be in 20 years time.

Got it?

Ok, so what are you doing right now to achieve it?

How to be a Champion in the Race called Life?

Wayne Bennett (one of Australia's most successful coaches) recently allowed rare access to his team's dressing room before a big match. The main thrust of Wayne's speech pre-game?

“The first battle is between your ears”.

Interesting isn't it. It's not the level of education, amount of money, sporting prowess or knowledge base that determines who the champions in life are. It's how they manage that journey - in their minds - that sets the winners apart.

Different Attitude = Different Result

On Tuesday 28th February at 6pm we are holding a forum that is designed exclusively for people who are serious about reaching their maximum potential. Topics to be discussed include:

- How can two people from similar backgrounds end up, financially, worlds apart?
- Why do some Business Owners bound ahead and other seem to flounder?
- Why don't we always stick to our personal goals we set ourselves?

Only those who are prepared to walk the talk should be there that night.

Our Guest Speakers:

David Becker from Sports Wisdom
“How to be a Champion in the Race called Life”. David is a best selling author and is going to share the secrets from interviewing Australia's greatest sports coaches.

David Becker

Matthew van Mourik from A. Basile & Associates Chartered Accountants
Matthew is a Senior Accountant who specialises in helping Business Owners transform a written business plan into reality.

Julie Schafer from Ellen Schafer & Associates
Julie Schafer has a Masters in Applied Finance and is the Senior Financial Planner for ES&A. Julie's education is supported by 16 years experience as a Financial Adviser. She will give some insight into how to ascertain what degree of certainty there is in the investment process - and how to harness that information to create personal wealth.

Attendance at this forum is FREE (although seating is limited).

Please - either phone our office on 5445-6044 to reserve your seat or book via our website.

The forum will go for approximately 3 hours including a light supper.
